Summary: Natsu and the team go missing for a couple of days when they get back things just get all messed up. I will take title suggestions for the story. Also I kind of suck at summaries.

1. Chapter 1

**Authors Note: So this is my first Fairy tail Fan Fiction. I am a little unsure as to what my pairing is going to be; however, Lucy is definitely one of the characters in the pairing. Also the story is from her POV. I'm not sure if I'm going to switch POVs any time soon. I have the first three chapters written. At first I was only going to upload the whole story at once when I finished but then I changed my mind. Also if you have any name suggestions for the fan fic. that would be very helpful.**

_~Chapter One~_

I was walking through the guild hall looking for Erza and the rest of my team. I didn't think we had a mission today, but I went to check with Mira anyway. Just to be safe.

"Mira, have you seen Erza and the others today?" I ask.

"I'm sorry Lucy, I haven't."

"Oh. Well do you think you could check and see if they had a mission scheduled for today that I missed?"

"Sure!" she smiles, "Just give me a minute. Oh! Do you want a strawberry milkshake while you wait?"

"Yes please!"

While she went to make my shake and check the schedule, I turn to look at the tables in the back of the hall to see if I could find Levy and Gajeel, but I don't see them either. I can't find Wendy, Carla, Juvia, Lisanna, or Panther lily anywhere.

"Lucy, are you okay?" asks Mira.

"Oh, yes. I'm fine. Did you find anything?"

Suddenly her smile falls. "No I haven't."

"Oh. While you were looking at the schedule did the others appear to have missions today?"

"Yes, Wendy, Carla, Gajeel, Levy, and Panther lily all went on a mission together."

I smile. "Okay. Thank you."

After a few days and still no appearances, I was starting to get worried. Levy's group had come back and kept trying to calm my nerves, but I had a feeling that something was about to happen, and I wasn't going to like it or be happy about it either. Suddenly there was a big bang from the front of the hall and everyone looked to the doors and found all of Team Natsu at the entrance with Juvia and Lisanna. Grey had finally given in to all of Juvia's advances and had been dating for almost a year now. Natsu and Lisanna had gotten together about a month ago.

I ran up to them and went to open my mouth and ask where they had been and if they were alright when I was suddenly thrown across the hall by an angry looking Natsu.

"What was that for?!" I heard someone yell.

"She doesn't belong here, simple as that." Erza says.

"What has gotten into you lot?!" Says Makorov.

"Common sense." Came Natsu's reply.

That was the last thing I heard before everything went black.

2. Chapter 2

_~Chapter Two~_

I woke up to the sound of whispered voices by my sit.

"I can't believe they would do something like that," said a sweet, small voice.

Oh, I know that voice, it's Levy.

"You could tell it was coming, at least if you had my senses shrimp. They smelled of anger, wrath, and darkness," replied a gruff, low voice.

Gajeel.

"At least Blondie here is alive. They had thrown her across the room with the intent to kill."

The voice was familiar, but I couldn't really place it. It made feel safe, or maybe in the middle of a storm. One name came to mind then.

"Lexus," my voice sounded hoarse, and my throat dry.

I feel the bed I'm laying on dip as I open my eyes. I see Lexus sitting next to me on my bed.

"Hey there Blondie," he says with a soft smile I've never seen before.

"You're blonde too," I mumble with a pout. I look over at Levy and ask, "Can I get some water please?"

"Of course Lu-chan, just give me a minute alright?"

"Okay," I say with a smile.

Levy gets up to leave and once she does Gajeel looks at me with curiosity in his eyes.

"So Bunny-girl is what Natsu's group saying true?"

"What are you talking about?"

With a sigh he says that Natsu and they're saying that they left because I was bullying them and they got tired of it, and how I was jealous of Lisanna, and how I quit the team. By the end of his explanation I was crying, I didn't realize I was until I felt a hand wipe away the tears on my cheeks.

"Blondie," Lexus said softly, "we aren't accusing you. We're just asking for confirmation on whether it was true or not."

"It isn't true. I have been supportive of their relationship. I haven't been mean and I was never jealous of them. Natsu was like my little brother despite being the same age, and Grey was like my big brother. What happened?"

I don't care if my voice cracked every now and then throughout my little spiel. I didn't even notice the door opening and three figures coming in the room until a glass of water was put in front of my face. I look up to find Levy, Grey, and Juvia now in the room. I take the glass with a mumbled thank you and drink it down as fast as I could. When I'm finished with the glass I put it on the table beside the bed and look over to find Grey and Juvia looking nervous and a little worse for wear.

"Lucy, I know you probably feel betrayed, but I wanted to let you know that Juvia and I had no idea what Natsu and the others were doing until they had done it. I wanted to apologize." Grey says.

I look up at his face and in his eyes I see his sincerity, guilt, and anger at what had happened and I find myself believing him.

With a smile I say, "I forgive you both. I can clearly see that you had no part in their plot."

"Juvia is glad that love rival has accepted our apology."

"Juvia, I'm not your love rival. Grey is like a big brother to me. Besides he's dating you isn't he?" I say with a smile.

"Besides," Grey says, "Incest is gross," he says with a wink.

Juvia and the others all laugh, and the darkness slowly fades and gives in to the light. I smile as I think about the fact that I have my brother back, and suddenly, I don't feel sad and hopeless anymore. I know that I've got to get better first, and then I'm going to get stronger.

3. Chapter 3

_~Chapter Three~_

**Authors Note: I forgot to mention in my last chapter that I had come up with a name and the official pairing is Laxlu; however, there will be background Rouge/Sting.****

After a few days I was finally allowed out of the guild hall infirmary. I got out and started making my way home so I could take a shower. While I was showering, I was thing about everything that happened and found that I don't hate Natsu and the others. I'm just sad that I lost some friends, but gained better ones.

I tried to mend everything with Natsu, Erza, and Lisanna, but they wouldn't listen. I can't handle their constant bullying though. The other guild members have disapproved of their behavior and try to stick up for me, but I don't want that. I want to be able to stick up for myself; to protect myself.

With that final thought I jumped out and got dressed. I put on a baby blue halter top with a strip of lace on the neckline, and put on a matching skirt that flows right above my knees with a strip of lace on the bottom. I put on a pair of combat boots, grab my belt and keys and decide to head back out considering it was around noon. I wasn't feeling to hungry though, so I decided to go on a walk to find someplace to practice and train at. After wandering around for a couple of hours I found a clearing with a lake a few feet away.

A sparkle of blue/green catches my eye and I go towards it. What I found was a folding type fan. It was black with gold details, and it had black fabric with blue flowers and lines with blue sparkles that, when in the sunlight, had the same effect as a peacock feather would.

"It's so beautiful." I say in wonderment.

I opened the fan fully to get a better look at it, I then realized it had gold loop at the bottom so that I could clip it to my belt, which is what I did.

I put thoughts of the fan to the back of my mind and decided to do laps around the small lake. After doing that for about an hour I decided to meditate to help strengthen my magic. After an hour of meditation I feel calm and decide I should try to find something to help with my physical strength. I look around to see what I can find and I see two rocks about the size of two small bowls. I use them as make-shift dumbbells for about two hours, then I use a tree branch to do pull-ups, the best I can, for an hour or two.

Thus my daily training ritual began.
